RECEPTION TO HONOR DR. CHAPMAN

NEVADA CITY: Plans are being completed for the public reception to Dr. C. W. Chapman, community worker and historical authority for many years. George Calanan is heading the committee in charge of arrangements and expects to announce a full program for the occasion scheduled for saturday evening, June 5th, at the Elementary School. Principal speaker will be Seth Mellington, Past Grand President of the Native Sons of the Golden West, who will honor Dr. Chapman, for over 40 years a member of the Grand Parlor and an ardent worker on the Land Marks Committee that built the beautiful Donner Monument. Music including the local high school orchestra, and a solo by Bill Tobiassen. Featured will be a replica of the Donner Monument now being constructed by Elza Kilroy.

The Native Sons, Native Daughters, the Elks and the Nevada County Historical Society will join the general public in paying homage to an outstanding civic worker.

The program will begin at 8 P. M., followed by a reception.

Elmer Stevens, chairman of the County Centennial Committee, states "This occasion might be called our first Centennial project and I know of no better way to observe it than by paying our respects to a great civic worker—a man whom we all love and respect."

G. V. PUBLIC MARKET TAPPED FOR LIQUOR

GRASS VALLEY: The Grass Valley Public Market on the Auburn Highway just outside the city limits was entered by burglars, believed by the the sheriff's office to be youths, and made off with $80 worth of whiskey. The entry was made early Wednesday morning.

COMMITTEE READY TO ERECT MARKERS

GRASS VALLEY: The Historical Marker Committee of the Grass Valley Lions Club announces completion of the historical markers and that they are about ready to erect the markers on the historical sites selected by the help of the Historical Society. Funds for materials were drawn by the Nevada County Historical Society from allocations made by the Nevada County Board of Supervisors.

Serving on the Lions Committee are: Verne Johnson, Chairman; Robert Frost, Claire Hughes and Jack Stennett.

The markers made in the local high school shop were completed and this week reached their final stage when they were painted by Claire Hughes.

The committee expects to erect the signs during the next few weeks.

The Nevada County Historical Society is asking the Board of Supervisors for $3900 to complete the markers; maintenance of the Nevada County Museum in Nevada City; restoration of the old Chinese Joss House in Grass Valley and publicatons.

Thomas, Dot Hocking, Madge Gallino, Teddy Robinson, Alice Ali, Dot Virginia, and Rosie Abas, Norman Gallino, Peter Daley, Larry Orzalli, Don Halverstadt, Ernest Harries, Thomas Hooder, Mert Austin, Cliff Hyatt, Robert Davos, David Wong and Royce Painter.

NEWS FROM THE RIDGE

BY ALICE HILL

May has been a full month for "The Ridge", and June promises to be just as busy. Yes, things are really happening along the famous old ridge. The road workers have returned to finish the highway from North San Juan to Freeman's Crossing. Regardless of the condition of Highway 49, it is carrying a large number of vehicles daily, trucks of all sizes topped by the huge lumber truck and trailer outfits and pleasure riders who travel over 49 with cars filled with happy faces reflecting the enjoyment of spring. The floral glory of this month has been without rival since we have lived here. Our hillsides of Scotch broom truly make this a country of gold, while masses of lupine reflect the blue of the sky. The sweet birch is adding its feathery sprays of white in a mass profusion while in the deeper forests the dogwood's pure white blossoms gleam like stars through the green foliage. Myriad varieties of smaller flowers make each trip afield a voyage of discovery.

Then there are the social affairs of those fortunate enough to live on the Ridge. Today's column will be devoted mainly to our French Corral friends.

On May 5th, Wednesday afternoon, the Columbia Parlor No. 70 of Native Daughters of the Golden West entertained their Grand President, Doris Treat of San Andreas Parlor No. 113 of Calaveras County, at their hall at French Corral, which was beautifully decorated with a variety of wild flowers. A delicious luncheon was served at 1:30. The Grand President gave an interesting talk on California history, and the preserving of old landmarks. Visitors included members from the Sierra Pine Parlor of Colfax, Laurel Parlor of Nevada City, Manzanita Parlor of Grass Valley, and Marineta Parlor of San Rafael. The members of the Columbia Parlor wish to thank our Deputy Grand President, Adelaide Stair of the Sierra Pines Parlor, Colfax, for her loyal co-operation and assistance.

Abbie Lee Barnett and stepdaughter, Josephine Bacon, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Moulton last week-end.

Mrs. Lena McCarthy has returned to San Leandro after spending some time with her sister, Fannie Moulton.

On May 22nd, the San Juan Ridge Water Users Association entertained at French Corral with a 49'er party and amateur show. The old school house was "bustin' at the seams" with friends from Camptonville, Celestial Valley, North Columbia, Nevada City and Grass Valley, and other communities besides some visitors from San Francisco and Camino. Even the weather co-operated for the evening by producing a wonderful moonlight night to watch the PLANES, INDIAN TRACKERS, JOIN IN SEARCH FOR E. F. ROOT, JR.

NEVADA CITY: Three planes, two Indian trackers and three posses joined the search Tuesday for Elmer F. Root, Jr., young Sacramento fisherman, who was last seen Saturday afternoon.

Root, 29, left his camp, set up at the Nevada Irrigation District Camp 19 between Bowman and Fuller lakes. He was to have taken Bowman Canal downstream, cross over to Fall Creek, fish up stream until he met Norman L. Davis, his fishing companion, who was expected to be fishing down stream on the creek. No meeting took place and Sheriff Richard W. Hoskins was notified.

Sunday, Monday and Tuesday the Fall Creek area was combed by men accustomed to searching for lost hunters and fishermen. Although Tuesday was a brilliant day of sunshine, the members of the sheriff's posse report there is considerable recent snow on the ground.

Root's wife, Virginia, and father, Elmer Root, Sr., joined the search.

The sheriff's posse Tuesday, led by Undersheriff Otis Hardt, took a new route. They proceeded to the place above the Eagle Bird Mine, where Fall Creek joins the South Yuba River and equipped with ropes clambered up the creek, some parts of which are practically impenetrable without special equipment.

Among those working out from Camp 19 were a group of Root's fellow telephone workers from Sacramento. The Indian trackers have dogs which are expected to aid in the search. The three planes were reportedly from the sheriff's office in Sacramento.

Two or three P. G. and E. employes from Emigrant Gap have ben active in the search.

THE - Diary of a 49'er

FROM THE BOOK EDITED BY C. L. CANFIELD

AUGUST 10, 1851—Pard is spending his days down on the river, and as it is only about four miles he rides over and back, morning and evening. I have not paid much attention to it as it seems to me it is going to be a hard job, but Pard has figured it all out from ideas of his own and hints that he has picked up from the fellows who did the same sort of work last fall up on the North Fork. He broke out laughing at supper last night, and when I asked him what made his so good natured he said: "What do you think they call the bar below our claims on the river—"The Lousy Level.'" There are some pretty rough names to the gulches and flats around here, but that is the worst of all of them. The bar is really a flat and about a dozen men are working on it, all doing well. The river is very low now, and Pard thinks we will be able to get into it in a couple of weeks. He will take down five men tomorrow and begin to lay out the work. We pay these men ten dollars a day. We will not have to build any cabins, brush shanties will do, as we will have to quit at the first storm. I ordered a bill of grub at Caldwell's yesterday, about two hundred and fifty dollars worth, which will be packed down this week, besides sledge hammers, nails, saw and some other tools. There will only be four of the company to lend a hand, as the rest are doing too well on their creek claims to leave them for the river, so we will hire eight men to help us, if we can get them. It's lonesome working alone, although I have Jack for company, as Pard won't let the dog go to the river—it's too long a tramp. Jack had a narrow escape Friday. I heard him barking furiously up the gulch above the ditch and went to see what the trouble was. It was lucky I did for I heard a spitting and snarling up in an old oak tree and there on a limb was a big mountain lion, lashing his tail and getting ready for a spring. I think he heard me coming, or it would have been good-bye Jack! I banged away at the beast with my six-shooter and I think I hit him. He jumped from the tree, made for the brush and that was the last of him. Pard saw a she grizzly and two cubs on the river trail last week, but he had not lost any bears and gave her the go-by. Mountain lions are plenty, although this is the first one I have seen. Think I can clean up the rest of the claim this week, and then we have decided to nail up the cabin and go down on the river and stay there until the rains.

STATE FLOAT IN LOCAL 4TH PARADE

NEVADA CITY: The Nevada County Centennial Committee was notified this week that the California Centennial Float created by the California Centennial Commission was completed and will be placed in the annual Fourth of July parade in Nevada City. Request to the commission was first made by H. F. Sofge, Nevada City Chamber of Commerce. Confirmation of the entry was made by the Commission to the local committee headed by Elmer Stevens.

The beautiful float constructed recently depicts the '49 phase of California history and will be a real addition to the parade.

AUGUST 18, 1851—Finished up the old flat and abandoned the claim. Brought the "Tom" and sluice boxes to the cabin. We may want to use them later. I figure out that with the five thousand five hundred dollars I have sent home, the twenty-five hundred dollars invested at the Bay and the dust I have on hand I am worth over eleven thousand dollars, not counting any increase in the Frisco lots. That is doing pretty well for eighteen months' work; still, there is nothing extraordinary about it, as many have made ten times that much. On the other hand, a lot of the boys are just where they started, but in the majority of cases it is by reason of their improvidence rather than bad luck. It is easy come and easy go, and it makes spendthrifts out of the careless, happy-go-lucky fellows.

JUNE. The month of electons and weddings. Courage to the newly elected candidate and recently married bride. Both are taking a chance on love. Time alone can tell the outcome of their venture. Politics, like matrimony, can make or break an individual.

TODAY. On June 4th 129 years ago the Independent Order of Odd Fellows was organized at Baltimore. Throughout the Northern and Southern Mines a few remaining I. O. O. F. halls are among our oldest buildings.. Many erected 96 years ago of hand made bricks. They rate centennial notice.

KNIGHTHOOD. It still flowers. Pee-wee, that is what they called him. The little bit o'feller, made out of the stuff of great heroes. The gallant wee knight who gave his life to the cause of chivalry. The symbol of youth courageous. Like Sir Galahad, he has found the Holy Grail.

GRUMBLING. There has been much of it. The recent heavy rains have done this and that to the fruit and berries, to the field and vegetable crops. But let us be thankful for what remains. The loss has been small compared to that of our northern neighbors. Let us help them. They will need all that we can give.

GEMINI. Archie, the turtle, says that now we are in the sign of the twins. That Gemini men have to drive themselves toward success because they won't let any one else do it. That it takes a clever woman to handle a Gemini man, and cleverer the woman the less handling she will attempt.

'Tis heaven alone that is given away,
'Tis only God may be had for the asking;
No price is set on the lavish summer;
June may be had by the poorest comer.

HISTORIANS TO GO ON MULE SPRINGS TRIP

NEVADA CITY: The excursion of the Nevada County Historical Society to Mule Springs next Sunday promises to be one of the most interesting, from a historical standpoint, yet taken.

The area around the springs has 15 large placer mines of early days, ranging north to south they are Scott's Flat, Quaker Hill, Hunt's Hill, Red Dog, You Bet, Little York, Christmas Hill, Liberty Hill, Lowell Hill, Remington Hill, Dutch Flat, Gold Run, Blue Canyon, Iowa Hill, and Forest Hill.

The region is east and southeast of Nevada City. From the Forest Service station on Camel's Hump most of these old diggin's can be seen. Mule Springs, near which the Moses sawmill is now operating, was a way station. Members of the Donner party were given first aid there. Rescue parties met some of the refugees from Donner Camp there.

Dixie Stair Weds Lloyd Olson In Reno Rites

GRASS VALLEY: Miss Dixie Irene Stair today was married in Reno, Nevada, to Lloyd Melvin Olson. The ceremony was witnessed by close relatives.

Miss Stair was graduated last night with the class of 1948 from the Grass Valley High School. She has been employed in a local sweet shop for several months.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mel Olson of Brighton Street, a veteran of World War II, and is employed by Covey's Garage on East Main Stree.

NEWS FROM THE RIDGE

grand time we all had inside. The evening started with progressive card games, 1st prize going to Mrs. Maude Campbell and Mr. Saunders, and 2nd prizes to Mrs. Warren Odell and Mrs. Lucy Kneebone. This was followed by an entertaining show, including 12 acts besides the guest acts. They were as follows:

Statue of Liberty, opening number, Lonny Stewart and children of the community.

"The Skunk Hunt", by Mr. Waid Oden.

"Their First Breakfast", by Don and Barbara Browning.

"The Confused Dutch Boy", by Mrs. Alta Atchison.

Mae Wilson, reading her own composition of her version of the present day political confusion.

"A Piano Selection" by Diana and Bobby Browning.

A song by Mrs. Maude Campbell ,her own composition, entitled "Chicken A-la-king."

"Pig in a Poke" Auction. Mr. Atchison, auctioneer. Mr. Alex Stewart, clerk.

"Little Old Lady" in pantomime, by Sonja Wilson, sung by Mrs. Campbell.

"A Switchboard Operator in a Small Town Hotel, Mae Wilson, operator, Mrs. Proom as Ling-Lee the bell boy.

Fashions of the 80's were shown by Mrs. Adele Browning, Mrs. Proom, Mrs .Lucy Kneebone, Mrs. Atchison, Mrs. Cora Stewart, Miss Theresa O'Connor, and Mrs. Margaret Madden.

"Songs of Long Ago" ws sung by the above group.

"Little Mother of the Golden West," a poem, was read by Mrs. Adele Browning.

Mistress of Ceremonies was Miss Theresa O'Connor.

All acts were very nicely supported by the very charming and talented Mrs .Maude Campbell, with her intervening piano selections. Mrs. Campbell also entertained the audience with several vocal selections.

Guest numbers were given by the following: Mr. Butz in "Tricks with a Rope"; Mr. Brian, a banjo solo; Mr. Preston Kohler, banjo solo; The Stewart-Oden orchestra, piano, violin, banjo and drums. The above musicians later played for dancing.

Judges of the show were Mr. Hill, Mr. Butz and Mr. Booth.

Prize winners were Sonja Wilson, "Little Old Lady", first prize, $3.00; Mr. Oden, "Skunk Hunt", second prize, $2.00; Mae Wilson and Mrs. Proom in "Switchboard Operator", third prize, $1.00.

After the show, everyone was invited to "Buttermilk Bend" to have coffee, pie and cake. Dancing climaxed the evening's good time. My sincere compliments to French Corral for showing us what can be done with only a two room schoolhouse for a theatre. It was beautifully decorated with Scotch broom and huge bouquets of iris and roses. The committee in charge of the party was headed by Mrs. Mae Wilson, who wrote all the scripts, etc., assisted by Mrs. Adele Browning in charge of the card party, Mrs. Fannie Moulton in charge of "Buttermilk Bend", assisted by Mrs. Emma Proom, and Mrs. Cora Stewart in charge of the "Bishop's Rail", assisted by Mrs. Margaret Madden. Mr. William Moulton, and Mrs. Albert Proom were at the door, and Mrs. Charles Romboud and Bill Browning were stagemen.

Just to mention North San Juan, on May 25th a testimonial dinner was given in honor of T. J. Conway and J. D. Conway for their much appreciated work this past year as teachers at the North San Juan school. Sixty-four parents and friends sat down at the U-shaped tables spread in Twamley Hall and the excellence of the chicken dinner can only be equaled when housewives of a community contribute their best.

Kathleen McQuinn entertained nine of her friends on Thursday evening at her birthday party. It wasto be a picnic, but because of rain it was held at the home of Alice Hill.

Margaret McQuinn celebrated her birthday the following Saturday with a party at her home with fourten school chums present.

(The end of a very perfect month!)

LAWYERS SEEK PAY FOR PUBLIC DEFENDING

NEVADA CITY: The Nevada County Board of Supervisors yesterday heard the plea of County Bar Association for pay while defending prisoners before the court.

Representing the bar association were Crofford W. Bridges, spokesman for the group, District Attorney Vernon Stoll, W. E. Wright, Frank G. Finnegan, John Larue, and Lynne Kelly.

Bridge pointed out that the association is not seeking $50 a day, as has been reported, but did ask for reasonable compensation especially in such cases as the defense of Lois H. and Joseph L. Hardy, who were convicted of murder, are involved. In that case, Bridges said, the attorneys appointed by the court to defend them spent three weeks each on the public defense of the two prisoners.

Reno Team Wallops Local Tennis Squad

GRASS VALLEY: The Grass Valley Tennis Club went down to defeat in the tennis tourney with the Reno Tennis Club in the 15th annual competition which was recently resumed.

The Grass Valley netsters won the first, second and fifth singles, but the Reno players swept the doubles events and took the other four singles contests. The matches were played Monday owing to the fact that rains Sunday made playing impossible.

Funeral Was Tuesday For Miss Catherine White

GRASS VALLEY: Funeral services were held in St. Patrick's Catholic Church Wednesday morning for Miss Catherine White who died Sunday in a Nevada City hospital. The service was conducted by Rev. Michael O'Sullivan. Burial, under direction of a Grass Valley mortuary, was in the family plot in the Catholic Cemetery.

Miss White was born on the Allison ranch 80 years ago. She was the last surviving member of the White family. Miss White was a devout member of the Catholic Church and spent most of her life on White Ranch just south of Grass Valley. Her only surviving relative is a nephew, Ragner Christensen of Grass Valley.
